ALAIN BRUMONT BRUMAIRE

This wine is late harvest Petit Manseng from the southwest of France in the region of Madiran. The extra-ripe, sugar concentrated Petit Manseng grapes have produced a hugely elegant and complex sweet wine, full of yellow jammy fruit, apricot and honey. A beautiful complement to foie gras.

BRUMONT Blanc

The wine has a lovely straw yellow color, the nose is buttery, mushroomy and toasty. Well balanced, complex, with a toasty nutty richness and an excellent length of great finesse. Wine of

BOUCASSÉ BLANC LES JARDINS DE BOUCASSÉ

The dress is yellow straw. The nose reveals flavors of white flowers and exotic fruits. In the mouth the wine has a fatty volume that is persistent to the finish. A very beautiful dry white wine with floral and mineral flavors.

BRUMONT Rosé

This pale pink wine is astonishingly tasty, fruity and smooth. Round body and fresh finish. This Gascony rosé is delightful, especially in summer, as an aperitif or with pork red fruits and cakes.
