WINEMAKER NOTES

The extremely steep, slate-laced hillsides in the central region of the Mosel River offer optimal conditions for producing great Riesling wines. Since 1624 the Böcking Family has been devoted to producing wines of the highest quality – crisp, fruity wines that are the finest a Riesling enthusiast could desire.

TASTING NOTES

This clear and brilliant wine reflects the mineral soil of the Mosel. There is an excellent balance of acidity and fruit that opens quickly. The wine has a roundness in the mouth and offers flavors of citrus and white flower.

VINEYARD

The vineyards for this wine are located in the middle of the Mosel region.
