WINEMAKER NOTES

This beautiful white wine can age in a cellar up to 5 years.

TASTING NOTES

A fresh and well-developed fruity nose. On the palate, a fruity and good attack with grapefruit and lemon aromas. Dry white wine with a good acidity balance and a fruity and long finish.

PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

It is best drunk fresh as an aperitif or with seafood.

VINEYARD

- Soil: Mainly limestone

VINIFICATION

The bunches are quickly pressed and the juice is being put in stainless-steel vats for maceration during 10 days. The wine is left to age in stainless-steel tanks and oak barrels for a few months, and then bottled.
