WINEMAKER NOTES

This beautiful Pinot Noir can age in a cellar up to 5 years.

TASTING NOTES

La Minée has a fruity nose and a ruby color. On the palate, there is a fruity attack. It is medium-bodied with a good balance and roundness, with a fruity finish.

PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

It is best drunk at 14-16° on its own, or with a meal and soft cheeses.

VINEYARD

- Soil: Limestone, marl

VINIFICATION

The bunches are put in a stainless-steel vat for maceration for 10 days. After a quick pressing to avoid rough tannins, the wine is left to age in oak barrels and stainless-steel tanks for a few months, and then bottled.
