CHÂTEAU ANGLUDET ROUGE

AOC Margaux

Ripe berries with some stewed fruit and currants on the nose. The palate is full and very rich with chewy tannins that are bold and slightly rustic, yet very attractive at the same time. A more traditional feel here. - James Suckling

Woodberry Wine

This wine is the expression of its exceptional terroir – elegant and charming ! A richly layered bouquet that marries jammy fruit – blackcurrant and blackberry – with toasty and vanilla notes.
