

This domaine fashions a superb traditional Cotes du Rhone, that Robert Parker says "for readers looking for fabulous values from the Southern Rhone Valley, here is a domaine to take seriously." This particular wine is full of fruit flavors. It is sweet and elegant.

The wine has a deep, dark red color, intense with good clarity. Hints of cocoa, licorice, blackberry make the wine warm, making it perfect for winter.

Domaine de l'ESPIGOUETTE

Dark, dense colored.

Smells of dark cherries, clove and spice.

Med- full bodied.

Balanced, long and classy.

Aromas of blackberry, licorice and cocoa. It is clear and bright. The nose is very open and immediately offers a nice complexity. Sweet spices take over combining scents of garigue, black olives and cocoa bean. It is a beautiful duality between the fond mind, almost docile, then the strength and full-bodied character after aeration.
